State of Alaska FY2025 Governor's Operating Budget

Department of Family and Community Services
Youth Courts
Component Budget Summary

Component: Youth Courts

Contribution to Department's Mission

The Youth Courts component provides funding for statewide youth court grants across the state. These youth courts provide early intervention and serve as a community-based diversion program for youth who have been referred to juvenile probation on misdemeanor charges, to District Court for status offenses, or school suspensions.

Core Services

• Youth Courts provide front-end accountability for first and second-time low-level juvenile offenders.

Major Component Accomplishments in 2023

The United Youth Courts of Alaska Director's meeting was held in person in November 2022, in Anchorage. This meeting allowed directors to rebuild their relationships to continue to collaborate with each other and resource partners. Director's attended training sessions, which included The Talking Circle, A Traditional Restorative Practice and Youth Move National, which is an organization that supports and develops youth leadership in advocacy to create positive change.

To honor graduating students, the Kenai Youth Court held a mini conference at Peterson Bay, near Homer. One theme of the mini conference was providing space for the teens to process challenges they have dealt with the last few years. The students engaged in trainings about restorative justice and talking circles.

Two site audits were conducted in Nome and Mat-Su Valley. In Nome, division staff met with the youth court director, community partners, and the Kawarek Tribe. The Mat-Su Youth Court is newly located in the Wasilla Police Department, where the director reported law enforcement and youth court relationships have been positive. Nome and City of Wasilla/Mat-Su Youth Courts were successful in their audits, and both reported positive community relationships, especially with District Courts, Juvenile Justice probation offices, and law enforcement officers.

The Division of Juvenile Justice received feedback from one youth court director on availability of training relevant to serving youth in the justice system. In response, the division granted access to its online training platform to several directors increasing their proficiency and professionalism in juvenile justice best practice.

Key Component Challenges

Fairbanks continues to be without a youth court since North Star Youth Court closed its doors in FY2021. The division continues to work diligently with the department's grant team in soliciting a new youth court provider.

Significant Changes in Results to be Delivered in FY2025

Alaska youth courts continue to creatively explore new programs and activities via virtual platforms or in-person events to prevent juvenile delinquency. This will include increased community and outside presentations, trainings, outreach, and education for youth volunteers. Youth courts continue to form partnerships with local school districts and law enforcement to accept referrals directly. The division will collaborate with interested program directors and explore opportunities for incorporating evidence-based programming targeting smoking, vaping, and e-cigarettes.
